4. This Miscellaneous Credits section relates to cash credits applied to your account by Wealthfront for any reason, including pursuant to promotions and contests conducted by Wealthfront. Wealthfront reserves the right to amend the amount of any cash credit, including subtracting some or all of the credit from your account, if it deems there was an error in the application of the credit. Please note, such cash credits may constitute taxable income, and you are responsible for all applicable federal, state, and local taxes and all fees and expenses related to the acceptance of such credits. You should confer with your personal tax advisor regarding the tax consequences of your receipt of cash credits. If applicable, Wealthfront will issue to you the appropriate IRS Form 1099 (or other appropriate form) that includes the value of any cash credits.

Disclosures

Investment advisory services are provided by Wealthfront Advisers, an SEC-registered investment adviser, and brokerage products and services are provided by Wealthfront Brokerage LLC, member FINRA / SIPC. Wealthfront Strategies is the investment adviser to the Wealthfront Risk Parity Fund. Northern Lights Distributors, LLC ("NLD"), member FINRA and SIPC, serves as the principal distributor for the Fund. NLD is not an affiliate of Wealthfront Strategies. Wealthfront Strategies and Wealthfront Brokerage are both affiliates of Wealthfront Advisers. Wealthfront Brokerage holds your cash and securities. Wealthfront Brokerage, as a broker-dealer, has entered into an omnibus clearing agreement with RBC Capital Markets, LLC ("Clearing Broker"). Wealthfront Brokerage instructs the Clearing Broker on behalf of Wealthfront Advisers to clear and settle Wealthfront Advisers Client transactions on an omnibus basis for Client securities orders that Wealthfront Brokerage currently places with its executing brokers.

Wealthfront Advisers sends trading orders to Wealthfront Brokerage who then routes the orders for execution. All trades processed through Wealthfront Brokerage are agency orders which means Wealthfront Brokerage does not execute the trades from its own inventory. Wealthfront Brokerage does not recommend transactions nor does Wealthfront Brokerage use discretion in deciding what orders to process or place.

For more information on how Wealthfront Brokerage LLC calculates interest, and associated risks, please see the Margin Handbook at https://www.wealthfront.com/static/documents/wbc/margin_handbook.pdf. Portfolio Line of Credit is a margin lending product offered exclusively to clients of Wealthfront Advisers by Wealthfront Brokerage LLC. You should consider the risks and benefits specific to margin when evaluating your options.

Funds invested after the money market sweep cutoff may be held as a free credit balance until the next sweep on the following business day and will not earn interest.

An investment in the Money Market Fund we offer is neither insured nor guaranteed by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC) or any other government agency. There is no guarantee that the Money Market Fund will be able to maintain its value.

The prices of securities have been obtained from quotation services and other independent sources if available. Prices are typically based on the closing price. If no price is available from a quotation service or other independent source, the market price is shown as Not Available ("NA"). The prices on your monthly statement are provided as general information, and we do not guarantee the accuracy of any security's price. Wealthfront Brokerage will provide order routing details upon request as required under applicable regulations. Please send your request to support@wealthfront.com. All confirmations are generated on the trade date and are available for viewing on your Wealthfront Adviser's dashboard under "Taxes and Documents" on the following day. Money market fund purchases are included on your monthly statements.

You have the right to receive any cash balance to which you are entitled, less any amounts you owe on any of your accounts (such as advisory fees or interest). Your cash balance is not segregated and may be used by Wealthfront Brokerage in its business, subject to the limitations of U.S. Securities Exchange Commission Rule 15c3-3. What this means is that although your cash balance is not segregated, a bank account for the exclusive benefit of Wealthfront Brokerage customers has a cash balance set aside to ensure that your funds are safe.

This document should not be used for tax reporting purposes. Following each calendar year end, you will receive a Form 1099 for annual tax reporting (including taxable interest, dividends, capital gains, taxes withheld, and sales proceeds). If you have a retirement account, contributions and distributions will be reported on Form 5498 or 1099-R respectively. When selling securities, Wealthfront Advisers uses tax methods that attempt to minimize tax liability. If such methods are infeasible, our systems default to First-In First-Out ("FIFO"). Wealthfront Advisers and its affiliates do not provide legal or tax advice and do not assume any liability for the tax consequences of any client transaction. Clients should consult with their personal tax advisors regarding the tax consequences of investing with Wealthfront Advisers and engaging in these tax strategies, based on their particular circumstances. Clients and their personal tax advisors are responsible for how the transactions conducted in an account are reported to the IRS or any other taxing authority on the investor's personal tax returns. Wealthfront Advisers assume no responsibility for the tax consequences to any investor.

Wealthfront Brokerage is a member of Securities Investor Protection Corporation (SIPC), which protects securities of its members up to $500,000 (including $250,000 for claims for cash), in the event Wealthfront Brokerage were to go out of business. Securities held at Wealthfront Brokerage are not FDIC-insured. An explanatory brochure is available on request at www.sipc.org or by contacting SIPC at 202-371-8300.

Promptly report any inaccuracy or discrepancy in your account, within 10 business days after statement availability and follow up in writing any oral communications by calling 844-995-8437 or emailing support@wealthfront.com. Any oral communications should be re-confirmed in writing to further protect your rights, including your rights under the Securities Investor Protection Act (SIPA). Please note, the Wealthfront Advisers management fee, which is calculated as a percentage of Assets Under Management (AUM), includes accrued interest in your accounts. Accrued interest refers to the interest that has accumulated, but has not yet paid out, on your U.S. Treasury securities following the last interest payment date and as of the date of this statement. Wealthfront Advisers utilizes third party data services for the purpose of calculating such accrued interest

Treasury securities are generally non-callable and not subject to early redemption prior to their stated maturity date. However, should an extraordinary circumstance occur, you may receive lower yield.

Wealthfront Advisers, Wealthfront Brokerage and Wealthfront are wholly owned subsidiaries of Wealthfront Corporation.
