Re: Term Sheet to acquire certain Assets of Stocks Online Pty Ltd

Dear Mr. Karinja,

We appreciate the responsiveness and attention you've provided and directed your team to provide to our operating partner John Lin and his colleagues during our diligence discussions to date regarding SmallCaps.com.au and its associated assets. We would like to move forward to acquire the Stocks Online assets. We are a substantial and experienced acquirer and operator in related spaces, and we believe we can structure the terms in a way that is advantageous to your considerations.

As an introduction, Tekkorp Capital is an investment firm I lead as Chairman that originates and executes strategic investments and transactions in the digital gaming and igaming spaces; among our group we've driven over $24bn in M&A transaction value over the past 20 years. We participate actively across all stages of global digital gaming opportunities including seed, distressed / turnaround, and public capital markets.

This term sheet (the "Term Sheet") sets forth a summary of the principal terms and conditions relating to the acquisition by Tekkorp Capital LLC ("Tekkorp") of the assets owned by Stocks Online Pty Ltd (the "Company") associated with the SmallCaps, Cap Raise, Next Level Investing, and Stock Tips (together, "the Assets") together with all other relevant agreed assets, entities, rights, contracts, licenses, approvals and properties (the "Other Assets") that are used or held for use in connection with these businesses) (collectively, the "Transaction"), pursuant to a transaction agreement (the "Definitive Agreement"). The following summary is only meant to highlight certain material terms and conditions with respect to the Transaction. For the avoidance of doubt, all references to "$" shall mean Australian Dollars.[1]

Valuation	The value ascribed to the Assets for purposes of the Transaction will be $2,750,000, based on EBITDA of approximately $580,000 for the 12 months ending August 31 2024.
Transaction Consideration	In consideration, the Company will receive AUD $2,750,000 in cash at the closing date
Representations and Warranties;	The Company to give limited representations and warranties for a transaction of the size, nature and industry, specifically on ownership of relevant IP and historic financials.
Conditions to Closing and Transitional Period	The closing of the Transaction would be subject only to satisfactory completion of Due Diligence process. For clarity, there will be no financing condition. At the closing of the Transaction, the Company will transfer all of the Assets, including platform accounts, website designs, social media accounts, content (including published and unpublished articles, videos and podcasts), technology, client and server source code, configurations, developer and app IDs among distribution platforms, client and subscriber data to the ownership and control of Tekkorp or its nominated subsidiary. The Company will make Filip Karinja available on a limited and ad hoc basis for 60 days following the closing to provide support or technical information related to the assets.
Company Management	The Company's CEO is not included in the transaction beyond his 60 day availability as referenced above. All other employees and contractors, and the contracts that retain them, are included and their services are expected to be continuous following the transaction. The CEO will exercise best efforts to transfer or retain through new contracts, all of the existing contractors and/or employees.

Governing Law	Victoria, Australia
Transaction Expenses	Tekkorp will fund its own transaction expenses as well as those of Stocks Online Pty Ltd subject to a cap of AUD $50,000 for Stocks Online Pty Ltd's expenses.
Confidentiality	Except as required by applicable law or regulation or as expressly provided for in the relevant Confidentiality Agreements, the Company and Tekkorp shall not disclose the existence of this Term Sheet, its contents or the status of negotiations between the parties with respect to the proposed transactions without obtaining prior written consent of the other party.
Exclusivity	The Company and Tekkorp will enter into a mutual exclusivity arrangement for a period of 30 days following the date hereof that contains terms and conditions satisfactory to the parties thereto, which will be automatically extended for one additional period of 15 days if at the end of the initial exclusivity period both parties are continuing to work in good faith toward entry into a Definitive Agreement; provided that, if at any time during the exclusivity period the Company and Tekkorp, acting in good faith in accordance with their obligations provided herein, mutually determine that such events or conditions exist as to cause the Transaction to no longer be reasonably practicable at the valuation and upon the other terms set forth herein, then either the Company or Tekkorp may terminate such exclusivity period upon 2 days' prior written notice to the other party.
Due Diligence; Conditions to Execution of Acquisition Agreement	The parties will reasonably cooperate to facilitate the completion of the other party's due diligence, which cooperation will include (subject to applicable law and contractual restrictions, as well as the necessity to maintain attorney-client privilege) as promptly as reasonably practical making available all information and materials relating to its business and affording access to the properties, books, records and representatives of such party and its subsidiaries, in each case, as reasonably requested and taking into account appropriate materiality thresholds and transaction confidentiality. Execution of the Definitive Agreement consistent with the terms set forth in this Term Sheet is subject to the following conditions: • Satisfactory completion of legal, accounting, tax, and financial due diligence. • Negotiation, execution and delivery of satisfactory and mutually acceptable definitive transaction documents. • Receipt of all necessary board of directors and investment committee approvals.

Non-Binding	This Term Sheet is solely for discussion purposes and does not create a binding obligation on any party to consummate or negotiate the Transaction, and any such obligation will be created only by the execution and delivery of Definitive Agreement, the provisions of which will supersede this Term Sheet and all other understandings between the parties, provided that, notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the "Confidentiality" section, the "Exclusivity" section and this "Non-Binding" section of this Term Sheet shall be binding on all parties hereto.

The parties hereby agree to the foregoing as of the date first written above.
